

48 Captain Cook Road, Norfolk Island

Privacy & Tranquility Nestled Next to the National Park

Homes in such beautiful and quiet surrounds are what Norfolk Island is all about! This home is a quintessential sub-tropical hideaway, tucked into the native forest adjacent to the National Park. Green parrots, Morepork Owls and native flora will be your neighbours.

Along the quiet road to Captain Cook Monument, you will find this picture perfect 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom home. Completely renovated and restored in the last 3 years, the home was built in the 1940s and is of timber construction and cladding, and enjoys beautiful timber windows and timber french doors opening onto wide cool verandahs.

There is a bright, modern kitchen with new appliances which connects seamlessly to open plan dining and living areas. Whilst there are excellent modern touches, the home has kept its character. All plumbing and electrical connections have been recently replaced to ensure a new owner feels as if they have purchased a brand new home.

Two large bedrooms are located along the western side of the home, with the main bedroom having large french doors opening to a wide deck. This room also has an outstanding ensuite, creating a stunning master suite.
