Perfect Family Home

Built in the late 1990s/early 2000s, this 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom family home is the perfect option for anyone looking for a fresh, bright modern home in a great location.

With a large open plan living, dining and kitchen area it is an ideal family space, allowing connectivity yet separation with a partition wall dividing the kitchen from the lounge area. This space opens back and front to deck areas. The front receives beautiful afternoon light and would be a perfect spot to watch the setting sun. At the rear of the property, directly off the kitchen and breakfast counter an enormous deck creates an outdoor living zone which would be utilised year round for meals and entertaining.

3 bedrooms, laundry and a bathroom extend off the hallways from the main living room - all spacious enough for double beds, everyone will have their own separate oasis for living.

Accessed via a covered deck area, the master suite, teenager retreat or potential s/c unit is well located for privacy and separation. As a master bedroom, parents will have privacy - or move the kids out there to go about their own business - an ensuite bathroom, walk in robe and ample space for a
