Magnificent Historic Homestead

Hettae Branka House ~ 5 Bumboras Road

A stunning stone building with original footings and foundations from the second convict settlement 1840 -1844 and constructed as the Nobbs family residence in the late 1880s by the Stonemason of the Melanesian Mission. This home is a historical masterpiece, seeking a new custodian of its grand story. Located in the sought after Bumboras area, the home is ideally located less than 5 minutes drive from town, Kingston and its stunning Emily Bay, and local Bumboras Beach.

Built of calcarenite stone mined from the Kingston reef, the external walls of the property are no less than 50cm thick - external bay windows, french doors and high quality sash windows have been expertly cut into these substantial walls. Four metre high ceilings, New Zealand Kauri internal wall cladding, open fireplaces, and spacious bedrooms set either side of the grand hallway offer the kind of quality and precision building rarely available in modern construction. Structurally the property is in incredible condition, such is the sturdiness of the external walls, and stone foundations.

With various changes through the last 170 years, the home was operated as a
