41 Cutters Corn, Norfolk Island

Charming Renovator with Stunning Views

Situated down quaint and quiet Cutter's Corn and delightfully set-back from the road is a charming house, ready for someone to put their own style and stamp on. On a full acre of land with truly panoramic valley and ocean views this is a hidden gem of a location, and a rough diamond of a house with a huge amount of promise and potential ready to be explored.

A renovation has been commenced with fresh lines and the footprint for something really wonderful. The home sits on a raised concrete slab which could be polished for a crisp and modern finish.

~ One acre of partially flat and sloping land with northerly aspect and gorgeous valley and ocean views

~ The dwelling is set back from Cutter's Corn Road, offering privacy and seclusion

~ Open plan kitchen, dining and lounge area with opportunities to extend out onto a beautiful deck

As soon as you arrive on this property you'll be captivated, there's something special about this home and location. You won't need much of an imagination to envisage a stunning renovation project on this property - so obvious is the potential for the house and block.
