

3 Ephraim Christian Road, Norfolk Island

Expansive Character Cottage

This picture book cottage built in the late 1940s / early 1950s has all the character you would expect from a home of the era. Enjoying high ceilings, wide, polished Norfolk pine floorboards, casement windows and that mid-century 'beach shack' vibe, the home has been modernised in parts yet retains many lovely original features.

With 3 bedrooms, all double size or larger, the primary bedroom is light filled and connects to a walk-in closet space and a uniquely finished ensuite bathroom with shower, toilet and vanity. The main bathroom has been recently fully renovated with neutral tiles, a walk-in shower and bath. This bathroom is positioned toward the rear of the home and is accessed via a mud-room from the back garden - perfect for arriving home from the beach, where everyone can dump their swim gear and head straight for the bathroom!

A large kitchen incorporates a built in Norfolk pine table for a casual dining area and beyond the kitchen a Butler's pantry offers lots of storage, space for refrigerators and even a coffee station. This pantry opens to an outside kitchen complete with BBQ area and would lend itself to easy afternoon summer BBQs.

Front access to the home is via a sunroom/hallway and offers a practical entry area which is bright and airy and could be utilised as an office space or even another bedroom if needed. The lounge room includes a cosy wood-burning fireplace, comfortable seating area and a sweet reading nook nestled at the front of the house, crying out for a window seat to enjoy sunny late
