32 New Cascade Road, Norfolk Island

Prime Location Home with Two Portions

Positioned in a central location only a stone's throw to town, this single-level home has loads of character and is brimming with potential. The property, set back from the road along a concrete driveway, consists of two portions of land (one with the house) both boasting established gardens across lovely flat land, providing complete privacy. The generous three-bedroom, two-bathroom floorplan offers a choice of living spaces and is a practical, easy-living home in a prime location.

This residence presents an affordable entry into the market, and the chance to secure a property that you can add value to over time yet live in comfortably right away. This is an exciting opportunity for anyone looking for a home in a central setting that offers walking access to town and a wide range of lifestyle amenities, and just a 5-minute drive to the beach.
