

36a12 Taylors Road, Norfolk Island

2-Acres of Rural Land in the Heart of Town

Imagine being able to live your best life on a rural property yet have the convenience of being located right in the middle of Norfolk's township. Here is the ideal portion of land - with some fencing, power and phone lines already in place. Enjoy the privacy and serenity of this hidden gem while taking in the expansive views across the valleys towards the ocean.

This is an exciting offering of land, tucked away and accessed off Taylors Road and an excellent building block with all services ready to go:

- Electricity Service
- Telephone Line

Cleared and fenced, providing lovely valley views from Mount Pitt in the West to Kingston in the Southeast. Peaceful and Rural outlook across the valley to the back of Burnt Pine. On a gentle slope for much of the portion and then dropping down to the creek boundary.

Clear the Southern boundary to get water views to Kingston through the valley. Just over two acres, this could be the block you have been waiting for.
