

41 Rocky Point Road, Norfolk Island

Tropical Valley Oasis with a Stunning Home

This stunning home is set in 3 hectares of beautifully landscaped valley surrounded by an abundance of gardens - varying from orchards to rainforest to natural bushland. The open plan, contemporary style house boasts rear and front entertainment hardwood decks with views over the valley and out to the ocean.

The secluded house offers absolute privacy, set back along a long but level unsealed driveway from Rocky Point Road. The left boundary is defined by a flowing creek line, and the right boundary runs along a high ridge. The well-equipped kitchen, modern bathrooms, and the large cedar bifold doors connecting the interior rooms to the natural surrounds are what make this home so attractive. Built in 2010, the house is cleverly designed, spreading out over two levels.

Ground floor:

- Three large, carpeted bedrooms with bifold doors
- Family bathroom with shower and bath
- Large lounge room with loft ceilings, bifold doors and louver windows
- Separate laundry with toilet powder room and a shower
- All rooms access a north facing veranda with goldfish ponds and tropical plants

Upper floor:

- Massive entertainers' kitchen with dual ovens, 5 burner stove top, island benches, loads of storage, two under-bench fridges, and an under-bench
