Spacious Family Home with Flexible Living and Ocean Glimpses

Set on a generous 3,240m² allotment, this substantial two-storey residence at 185 Taylors Road offers space, privacy and versatility in a peaceful setting. Positioned well back from the road and surrounded by established gardens, the property enjoys a quiet neighbourhood atmosphere while remaining conveniently located between Burnt Pine township and Kingston.

Designed with flexibility in mind, the 236m² home provides a spacious layout that comfortably accommodates large or extended families, as well as those seeking the potential for dual living or guest accommodation.

Upstairs forms the main living level, where raked ceilings enhance the sense of space across the open-plan kitchen, dining and lounge area. A circular fireplace creates a welcoming focal point and adds warmth during the cooler months. Three bedrooms are located on this level, including a master suite with walk-through robe and ensuite, along with a family bathroom with separate toilet and a dedicated laundry.

A full-length deck spanning the front and side of the home extends the living space outdoors, providing a relaxed setting to enjoy the peaceful surroundings and glimpses of the ocean and Phillip Island which would be further enhanced with minimal lopping of trees on the property.

The lower level offers excellent additional accommodation, comprising two bedrooms, a bathroom, kitchenette and living area. This space is well suited for extended family members, guests, or multi-generational living, providing a level of independence while still being part of the main home.

The surrounding grounds feature established gardens and mature plantings, enhancing the privacy of the home and contributing to the property's relaxed rural character.

While some cosmetic updating could further enhance the home over time, the property already offers significant value through its size, flexible layout and desirable location.
